HOSTED BY:

THE DEVELOPMENT OF INTERNATIONAL LAW IN ASIA (DILA)-KOREA

SPEAKERS:

Marie SHELDON has had a career in scholarly publishing for nearly twenty years. Since joining Brill/Nijhoff in 2010, she has developed diverse publications in the field of international law and international relations, first as a Senior Publishing Editor and more recently as Publishing Director. Particular areas of editorial focus include law of the sea, international environmental law, investment and trade law and dispute resolution.

Previously, Marie spent a number of years at both the US and Netherlands offices of Kluwer Academic Publisher which merged with Springer Verlag in 2004 to become Springer Science. As a Publishing Editor at Kluwer/Springer, she worked with authors in the fields of economic and public policy, moving later into the domains of higher education, educational technology and the learning sciences. Prior to perusing a career in academic publishing, Marie worked in business-to-business publishing at Frost & Sullivan's Political Risk Services, a New York company providing specialized political risk reporting and consulting for corporations and governments worldwide.
