THE DEVELOPMENT OF INTERNATIONAL LAW IN ASIA (DILA)-KOREA

Mr Rodman BUNDY, Partner, Eversheds LLP, is a member of the Paris and New York Bars. Rodman is a Director in Dispute Resolution group with over thirty years of experience as counsel and advocate in high profile public international law litigations and international commercial and investment arbitrations, including appearances before the International Court of Justice, the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal and various ad hoc, ICC and ICSID arbitral tribunals, most recently on behalf of the Government of Colombia in its maritime boundary and sovereignty dispute with Nicaragua, the Government of India in the Kishenganga Arbitration brought by Pakistan, the Government of Cambodia in the case concerning the interpretation of the ICJ's Judgment in the Temple of Preah Vihear case, the Government of Slovenia in its boundary arbitration with Croatia, the Government of Peru in its maritime delimitation case with Chile and the Governments of Singapore and Indonesia in two separate sovereignty cases with Malaysia before the ICJ. Rodman recently relocated from our Paris office to the Singapore office.

On the non-contentious side, Rodman has extensive experience advising international energy companies and national oil companies on upstream oil and gas matters, including production sharing and joint operating agreements, service agreements, domestic and international unitization and the risks associated with petroleum operations carried out in disputed offshore areas.

Rodman lectures on international boundary disputes at King's College, London and boundary workshops organized by the International Boundaries Research Unit, and is a frequent guest speaker at conferences and workshops on issues of public international law, upstream oil and gas operations and construction disputes. He is also the author of numerous articles on these kinds of issues.

Rodman holds a BA in history from Yale University and a JD from the Georgetown University Law Center, Washington, D.C..
